

Ever wanted to learn how to dance the Tango or Salsa? Now is your chance...

Host

Brendan Courtney

Ozanam House is a community resource centre based on Mountjoy Square in the north inner city and operated by the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul. The centre provides various educational, community, youth and childcare programmes that are aimed at addressing social exclusion in Dublin's inner city. Find out more at www.ozanamhouse.ie Ozanam House SVP is now planning our 7th 'Ozanam Come Dancing' competition fundraiser in aid of the resource centre.

Under the direction of a qualified dance teacher, you will be transformed into a confident dancer over the course of 10 weeks.

The live show will take place on Friday, 6th March 2020 at Liberty Hall and the host for the evening will be television presenter and fashion designer, Brendan Courtney, aided by our celebrity judges.

If you would like to register your interest as an individual, as a couple or as a representative for your company, or if you would like more details, please contact us.

E-mail admin@ozanamhouse.ie

Phone : 01 874 2804

by Friday November 8th 2019